WHOLE LIFE TRANSFORMATION

We have updated our cancellation policy in response to the recent spread of coronavirus. This policy will go into effect immediately.

1. If you have already booked your trip and paid your deposit:

- If you cancel your trip, you will receive a credit with PID for the amount you paid. You will have one year and six months from the date you were originally supposed to travel to rebook your trip. Our normal credit period is one year, however, we have extended this to one year and six months due to the coronavirus. If you do not rebook with us within one year and six months from that date you were originally booked to travel, your credit is forfeited and any moneys paid will be treated as a donation to PID.
- If you have planned a trip through your college or university, please contact your college's trip coordinator regarding their cancellation/refund policies. If you are a college or university trip coordinator, please contact us at (978)380-6132 to discuss your trip.

We don't want you to get discouraged if you were planning on taking a trip in June onward, but are unsure if the trip will go ahead. If you are planning on going on a trip in June onward, please sign up for the trip but DO NOT pay your deposit until you are contacted that the trip is going forward.

Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time. Please check our website and Facebook pages for future updates. We reserve the right to make changes to this policy at any time.
